

We are pleased to announce that Ally Barbour, Melanie Miller, and Jennifer Riley have joined the IIAV staff.

Ally Barbour is the new Communications/Media Manager, she will be coordinating all print and electronic communication within the organization. Ally will be responsible for the development and delivery of comprehensive social media outreach and marketing programs, as well as for the graphics and design. She comes to IIAV as a recent graduate of Virginia Commonwealth University.

Ally is looking forward to professional development within IIAV and learning more about the industry. Outside of work she loves watching and attending sporting events as well as concerts, spending time with friends and family, and relaxing near the water.

Melanie Miller joins IIAV's insurance division (VFSC) working as an Insurance Account Manager. Melanie will work with Bonnie Warren servicing professional liability, cyber liability, Commercial Umbrella and EPLI business. She has multi-faceted experience spanning two decades in this industry. She has served in roles from underwriting niche insurance products to forms implementation, software configuration and process improvement. She has been a licensed Property & Casualty insurance agent for over 16 years.

Melanie enjoys learning and helping others learn and fulfill their goals within this industry. She is pursuing the Chartered Property Casualty Underwriter designation.

When she isn't writing insurance or pursuing her educational goals, Melanie enjoys spending time with her husband, step-daughter, pets, catching up with friends and family, camping, hiking, reading and crafts.

Jennifer Riley is the new Member Services Assistant. She will be assisting with education, membership services, and administration, as well as other areas. Jennifer comes from a long background of media sales and production, fundraising, tradeshow coordination, and hospitality sales. She is a graduate of Mary Baldwin University with a BA in Communications/Broadcasting. Jennifer looks forward to learning all about IIAV and assisting its members.

In her spare time, she is a fill in host for a writer's show for Virginia Voice and supports the local film community by acting in local tv/productions and volunteering. She is fond of traveling, cycling, and spending time with her husband, family, and friends.
